Re Department of Labor reporting requirements

Dear Union Officer

As you may know, the Department of Labor has determined that vendors of services, such as law firms, who provide anything of value to a union or union officer must report those items to the Department of Labor on Form LM10

As a union officer you also have reporting requirements about which your labor lawyer can advise you. To make your reporting easier we are sending you this letter detailing any items we gave to you during 2004.

For your reference, this firm's records reflect a gift valued at $54.00 for smoked salmon.

Should you have any questions, or need any further information, please contact me

Sincerely,

Marc D Joseph
